

Martin Daly honored by Scouts

The New York City District Council of Carpenters announced that The Greater New York Councils, Boy Scouts of America selected Martin Daly, director of training at the Labor Technical College, to receive the 2009 "Good Scout" Award.

Daly was honored during a special dinner held at Marina Del Rey in Throgs Neck.

The "Good Scout" annual Award Dinner is a principal fundraiser for the Greater New York Councils, Boy Scouts of America.

Each year this recognition is presented to those who exemplify in their daily lives the ideals of the Boy Scouts of America as expressed in the Scout Oath and Law. Recipients were chosen for their outstanding community service, as evidenced by their leadership to many worthwhile organizations, as well as the respect and esteem in which they are held by their colleagues. ■
