

NEW YORK CITY DISTRICT COUNCIL OF CARPENTERS HOSTS CITYWIDE PROJECT LABOR AGREEMENT SEMINAR

The New York City District Council of Carpenters held a seminar for contractors who plan to bid on public projects on May 11, 2010 on Citywide Project Labor Agreements. The seminar featured representatives from the Mayor's office including John Spavins, Coordinator of Labor Initiatives.

Additional representatives from the Mayor's Office of Contract Services, the NYPD, the New York City Department of Parks and Recreation Department and the Department of Small Business Services spoke at the event.

The agenda also included:

1. General Procurement
  - a. John Spavins, Coordinator of Labor Initiatives – Mayor's Office of Contract Services
  - b. Andrea Glick, First Deputy Director – Mayor's Office of Contract Services
  - c. Frank Bello, Agency Chief Contracting Officer – NYPD
  - d. David Pincus, Associate General Counsel for Capital Construction, Parks and Recreation Department
  - e. Santo Cimino, Contract Compliance Officer – Department of Sanitation
  - f. Ramon Rodriguez, Deputy ACCO – Department of Design and Construction

2. Citywide Project Labor Agreements
  - a. John Spavins, Coordinator of Labor Initiatives – Mayor's Office of Contract Services
  - b. Marcello Rios, Senior Analyst – Mayor's Office of Contract Services
  - c. Nick Martin, Senior Analyst – Mayor's Office of Contract Services
  - d. David Pincus, Associate General Counsel for Capital Construction, Parks and Recreation Department

3. M/WBE Requirements under Citywide Project Labor Agreements
  - a. John Chapman, Director – Department of Small Business Services
  - b. Walter Maxwell, Assistant Commissioner – Department of Small Business Services
  - c. Santo Cimino – Contract Compliance Officer – Department of Sanitation
  - d. Marcello Rios, Senior Analyst – Mayor's Office of Contract Services